Discretionary Child Support Credit for Qualified Children Living in Parent’s Home

> The Court has the discretion to consider credit for Qualified Children under this section for the purpose of reducing the parent’s adjusted gross income if failure to consider such an adjustment would cause substantial hardship to the parent.
 > If the Court considers an Adjustment to Income under this section, consideration must be based on the best interest of the Children for whom support is being determined.

Qualified Children - Credit may be considered only for children who meet ALL FIVE of the following requirements:

- A. The child lives in the parent’s home;
- B. The parent is legally responsible for the child (step-children do not qualify);
- C. The parent is actually supporting the child;
- D. The child is not subject to a preexisting order for support; and
- E. The child is not before the Court to set, modify or enforce support in the case immediately under consideration.
